Lily & Harry went on a date they will never forget.
Intro
(Will they find love?)

A couple of years ago, a boy and girl wanted to find love so they went to the cinema because both of their parents met at work so they booked tickets for the new beauty and the beast. Not long after, Harry asked Lily on a date at Caldecotte on Thursday. Harry asked for her phone number and she gave it to him.

Lily felt embarrassed in front of Harry so Lily ran away into the dangerous, gloomy forest. Harry chased after Lily. He was curious and he saw a tree branch falling so he jumped and pushed Lily out of the way, but he got his arm stuck under the tree branch and injured his arm. Not long after, Harry's arm was feeling better and it didn't hurt as much.

One month later, they found out that Lily's mum had brain damage. Lily was devastated when she found out that her mum was in a car accident and suffered with brain damage. As quick as Harry could, he rushed to the hospital trying to cheer them up. The date was going to happen next month due to this tragedy.

One month later, they went on a date they liked each other more than they thought, but Lily couldn't stop thinking about her mum. It wasn't the right time for Lily so she had to go back to the hospital but when Harry thought Lily was going to go she turned back and hugged him and said "You're the best partner a girl could ever ask for."

A week later, Lily's mum was discharged from the hospital. Lily was full of joy and enthusiastic about getting out the hospital and finally having fun again rather than worrying about her mum. As soon as her mum got discharged, Lily rung Harry to ask about going on a proper date also to tell him her mum got back home after a disastrous month.

Finally they went on a proper date. They became boyfriend and girlfriend at the age of 14. Sometimes Lily had to look after her mum but mostly she went out to the cinema and went to the park to talk. Sadly, Harry and Lily broke up because they lost sight of each other with all that was going on. A year later, they saw each other at school and they started to be friends. They became boyfriend and girlfriend again.

5 years later, Harry and Lily have been together for five years so Harry got down on one knee and proposed to Lily she said yes. As soon as Lily's mum found out she felt so happy for her because always wanted to get married and she witnessed it. They're getting married in 2 months. Harry's dad's birthday.

One week later, they started looking for a venue they wanted to get married at a beach but it was £34,000 pounds so they kept looking they told all there family members and friend their friends made fun of them but they didn't care.

They were getting married at Ibiza on the scorching, blazing beach that's what they wanted. There was only 15 of them 1 bridesmaid, 2 groom men, 1 maid of honour and 11 family members. Lily and Harry were so nervous that Harry almost fell over. Lily and Harry were doing there vowels. After the vowels Lily was crying with happy tears because her mum watched her get married. they had a huge buffet even though there were 15 of them. Harry was relieved that it was over he found it so nerve racking. A honeymoon to Florida.

2 weeks later they found out that Lily was pregnant. She went on a pregnancy test and it turned out she had been pregnant for 1 week. The doctors weren't sure if it was a boy or a girl. In 6 weeks they would see the picture of the baby. (Will they get a girl or boy?)

6 weeks later, they looked closely at the picture and saw it was twins. Harry was over the moon so was Lily but scared as well because she didn't know what was gonna happen. She was hoping for her mum to see the baby. Harry wished his dad was here.

Page 13

2 $\frac{1}{2}$ months later, Lily had a boy and a girl they were so cute. They named them Riley and Emily. They wanted to hug them so tight but the doctor took them to their baby beds. Harry really wanted a boy and girl but Lily didn't, she wanted two boys.

8 months later, Riley's first word was mummy and Emily's She hasn't had a first word yet. They are so cute together. Obviously they're twins so they love to play with each other. Their mum and dad are so proud of them. Harry's mum came to visit the babies. She fell in love with the babies as soon as she saw them.

2 weeks later, sadly, Lily's mum died at the age of 52. She lived a long happy life but 1 hour before she died of her brain damage. Emily said her first word nanny in front of Lily's mum. she was chuffed and smiled at her.

5 weeks later, the funeral took place at Lily's mums favourite place . Lily was crying so much she couldn't help it she said "My mum was the best nanny to my kids, why did it have to end this way, she loved them so much. Don't worry she will always be here (in your heart)."

12 Years later. Lily and Harry are 34 years old and the kids are teenagers playing with their friends all the time.. They annoy each other a lot. They always get told off for fighting but that is what siblings do but deep down they love each other. They are hard to handle sometimes. They live in a £346,790 house and a BMW i8 (car). Harry and Lily plan to have an anniversary party. They want the kids to have a good education so they have to do their homework 1 hour a day.

5 years later Emily and Riley moved out to live with their boyfriend and girlfriend. Riley became a football player playing for Manchester City and Emily became a teacher. Their mum and dad are so proud of them. Harry and Lily are old now so they retired and they just stay at home and chill. Sometimes Riley gives them money he also goes to different countries a lot.

1 year later, Emily had a baby boy. She called him Alex. She had a baby shower 2 weeks before he was born. The gifts they got were: a blue blanket, a blue wooden crib and a big blue teddy bear. Alex had brown eyes and blonde hair.
